Charles Spurgeon

"I am poor and needy; come quickly to me, O God!
You are my help and my deliverer.
O Lord, do not delay!" Psalm 70:5

The act of prayer teaches us our unworthiness, which is a very beneficial lesson for such proud beings as we are. If God gave us blessings without constraining us to pray for them, we would never know how poor we are. But a true prayer is . . .

an inventory of our needs,
a catalog of our necessities,
a revelation of our hidden poverty.

Charles Spurgeon

The most healthy state of a Christian, is to be . . .
always empty in SELF, and constantly depending upon the Lord for supplies;
always poor in SELF, and rich in Jesus;
as weak as water personally, but mighty through God to do great exploits.

And hence prayer, while it adores God--it lays the creature where it should be, in the very dust!

Charles Spurgeon

Prayer is that uplifted hand of Moses, which routs the Amalekites more than the sword of Joshua.

We have no idea what prayer can do!

We thank you, great God, for the mercy-seat--a choice proof of Your marvelous loving-kindness. Help us to use it aright throughout this day!

"Let us then approach the throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need." Hebrews 4:16
