Desperate Times Call for a Great Savior

Four biblical dispositions necessary to endure (and even thrive) in desperate situations

CROWN & COVENANT

Four biblical dispositions necessary to endure (and even thrive) in desperate situations

1. Honesty about the situation

If all the trials which come from heaven, all the temptations which ascend from hell, and all the crosses which arise from earth, could be mixed and pressed together, they would not make a trial so terrible as that which is contained in this verse. It is the most bitter of all afflictions to be led to fear that there is no help for us in God.

2. Clarity concerning God's promises
3. Trust in God's preservation

"This quietude of a man's heart by faith in God, is a higher sort of work than the natural resolution of manly courage, for it is the gracious operation of God's Holy Spirit upholding a man above nature, and therefore the Lord must have all the glory of it."

Lifter of My Head

Words: Don Totten c.2013 Church Works Media CCLI #1909623

CROWN & COVENANT

O Lord, my foes have risen up against me, proclaiming that there is no help in God.
But this I know: You are a Shield about me,
my Glory, and the Lifter of my head.
But this I know: You are a Shield about me,
my Glory, and the Lifter of my head.

CROWN & COVENANT

I cry aloud to God who is Salvation.
I hear Him answer from His holy hill.
I sleep in peace, for God the Lord sustains me;
I will not fear, though thousands would assail.
I sleep in peace, for God the Lord sustains me;
I will not fear, though thousands would assail.

CROWN & COVENANT

Arise, O Lord, my God who does deliver;
strike down my enemies as in the past,
for unto You, O Lord, belongs salvation.
May blessing on Your people ever rest.
For unto You, O Lord, belongs salvation.
May blessing on Your people ever rest.

CROWN & COVENANT

The Son of Man, rejected and forsaken, suffered unjustly at the hands of men.

So let us arm ourselves with this same purpose-
embrace His will, entrust our souls to Him.

So let us arm ourselves with this same purpose-
embrace His will, entrust our souls to Him.
